ORIGINS OF U3A

The University of the Third Age began in France in 1972. The first British U3A was established in Cambridge in 1982. U3A Reading was launched in 1985. Most U3As have no formal link with universities. "University" is used in its original sense for a group of people coming together to learn for the pleasure of learning. To date total membership nationally is over 248,000 and there are over 760 autonomous U3As.

Gift Aid Notes

Reading U3A can recover a tax rebate on membership subscriptions under the Charities Gift Aid system. To enable us to do so it is necessary for each member to complete a Gift Aid Declaration if they are currently paying UK Income Tax or Capital Gains Tax.

From these forms, the Treasurer compiles a list and forwards the names to HM Revenue & Customs and claims Tax Relief against the subscription. There is a substantial financial benefit to all charities taking part in this scheme.

All eligible members are urged to sign the Gift Aid Declaration, which allows U3A to recoup 25p for every pound of your subscription, i.e. £5 on £20.

Cancellation of this Declaration can be made at any time by notifying Reading U3A.
